

Go head to head with Tiger Woods...

Have you ever wondered what thoughts are going through the head of Tiger Woods when he's approaching the final hole of a major championship? How does he maintain such intense focus and concentration under such extreme pressure? What is the secret that all the greatest champions have in common? Without exception, every great golfer has developed the ability to maintain a relaxed concentration, creating a peak performance.

"Every player can improve their golf game by learning how pros think. Many players have never learned how to practice their mental game...it's their missing link to playing great golf. Discover secrets of the mental game of golf..."
Sean Arey, Head
Golf Pro, Trysting Tree Golf Club

"MASTERING THE MENTAL GAME CLINIC"

In this one-hour clinic, you will learn:

- How to develop a heightened sense of body & club awareness
- Swing & stroke thoughts for improved focus
- How to overcome self-doubt
- Secrets of relaxed concentration
- Numerous practice drills to increase the sensitivity of your game

"It has been my experience that the more completely we can depend on instinct – the more thoroughly we can divest the subjective mind of conscious control – the more perfectly we execute our shots...That intense concentration upon results, to the absolute exclusion of all thoughts as to method, is the secret of a good shot."

The Legendary Bobby Jones in Vanity Fair, 1929
